

Former Vice-President
Curtis Thinks G. O. P.

Revival Will Be Slow

WASHINGTON — Charlie Curtis, ex-Vice President of the United States, thinks G. O. P. Chairman Fletcher is doing a good job, but that it may take a long time for the Republican Party to get on its feet.

"The old reactionaries within the Party have lost control," says Charlie. "Fletcher is a diplomat, and we certainly need a diplomat to bring the Party together."

"The Republican Party will stage a comeback, but it will be slow. In forty years of politics, I have seen many defeats, and it sometimes takes years to rebuild a strong machine after a crushing blow."

Kind-Hearted Czar

Joe Eastman, Czar of the Railroads, may be hard-boiled when it comes to rail executives, but he has a tender streak under it all.

Noticing that the same taxi-driver waited every evening to drive him home, Eastman got into conversation with him, learned he had a career as bootlegger, hi-jacker and still carried on the floor of his cab a crank-handle to apply to the heads of recalcitrant customers.

In the man, however, Eastman recognized character and real ability. So he said:

"If you stay in this environment, you'll go from bad to worse."

The next morning he told his friend to report at the Interior Department as a multigraph-machine operator at $1,620 a year.

New Chief of Staff

The Secretary of War has let it be known that if Major General Dennis E. Nolan wants that the most coveted of all army assignments — Chief of Staff — he can have it.

If General Nolan — now at Governor's Island — accepts, it will end the bitter suspense which for months has consumed the army as to who would fill the shoes of the retiring Douglas MacArthur.

There is only one possible hitch. General Nolan, now 64, must retire in two years. The tour of duty as Chief of Staff generally is four years.

However, General Nolan served once before as Deputy Chief of Staff. Also he is one of the most brilliant, best-loved soldiers in the Army.

Nolan is the army's highest ranking major-general. Although he was graduated from West Point seven years before MacArthur, and although he is eight years older than MacArthur, so fast were the latter's promotions that he became a major-general just one day ahead of General Nolan.

Merry-Go-Round

When steel workers' representatives were in Washington several weeks ago they referred to Secretary Perkins as "Fanny." Her first name is Frances. Among labor men generally she is called (off the record) "Ma" Perkins. Secretary Wallace has laid down the rule that before sugar-beet growers can collect Federal benefit payments, under the new Cost-Jones Act, they must sign contracts guaranteeing fair wages to beet-field workers. Big Jim Farley is living up to the elaborate splendor of his new office. He has installed a charming lady "receptionist" in the vast, pillared lobby of his sanctum.

It's very fancy — and Hollywoodish. One candidate this year has found that hanging on to the coat-tails of the New Deal pays handsomely. Representative E. W. Marland, one-time multimillionaire oil operator, has just won the Oklahoma Democratic gubernatorial nomination under the slogan, "Bring the New Deal to Oklahoma with Marland."

The New Deal has been a bandwagon to Washington realtors. Since March 4, 1933, the Government's annual office rent bill has practically doubled, mounting from $740,985 to $1,365,750. Uncle Sam is now leasing space in 49 Washington buildings, but will

DADS' ACCEPT BRAUGHT PLEA; CONFER TODAY

Commissioners Go to Columbus for Relief Talk at 3:30 O'clock

RESULT UNCERTAIN

Much Concern Over Importation of Labor

Pickaway — co commissioners, meeting Thursday to discuss old age pension applications on which they took no final action, accepted an invitation of Major E. O. Braught, state relief director, to confer with him in his office this afternoon. The meeting was set for 3:30 o'clock.

Braught's request that they meet with him came over telephone and was considered an official invitation by the "county dads." A request for a meeting published in The Herald two weeks ago was not regarded as "official" by the commissioners.

FAMILIES GET FOOD

COLUMBUS, July 12.—Distribution of 400 cartons of potatoes, about 12,000,000 pounds, to needy families throughout Ohio will start in about a week, state relief commissioners announced today. It is planned to furnish each of the 200,000 families listed on the state relief rolls with 15 pounds of potatoes weekly. Distribution will be made through county relief agencies.

TO DISCUSS RELIEF

It is believed the topic for discussion will be restoration of state and federal relief to Pickaway-co which was withdrawn July 1 after a disagreement between the commissioners and the relief office. Since that time no relief at all has been coming here with the commissioners intending to handle their own problem.

A report, later confirmed, that out-of-the-county labor, probably from Franklin-co, would be sent here to complete the airport project on the S. C. Eisen property caused much concern through the city with a number of civic leaders expressing their displeasure over the importation of workers when there are so many here who need occupation. The only way local workers will be used is for the county to accept the state relief statutes for relief.

HOPE FOR BEST

What the result of the conference will be is not known; it is not certain what line of approach Major Braught will take but it is hoped for the good of all concerned that something can be done to prevent outside labor from being brought to Circleville when local workers need the money and local business would thereby be benefited.

ROTARIANS HEAR DEWEY, ECONOMIST

Ohio State Professor Appraises New Deal; Lauds Valley Authority.

A joint meeting of the London and Circleville Rotary clubs heard an economist's appraisal of the New Deal in an annual gathering at the London Country club Wednesday evening.

Dr. Ralph L. Dewey, of the department of economics at Ohio State university, the speaker, declared that the New Deal was inevitable because of existing conditions. "Our country's leaders had failed to solve the problem of business cycles, the great problem of poverty and had failed to take any steps to check the maladministration of industry or make any

TRUSTY KILLS FLEEING GIRL

Helen Spence Eaton, Slayer of Two, Shot to Death During Gunfight.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 12.—A pretty brunette who had crowded the slaying of two men and four prison escapes into her twenty-two years of life, lay dead today, shot down by a trusty.

Helen Spence Eaton made good her threat that she would never be taken alive.

She was shot down by Frank Martin, himself a convicted killer, as she leveled her revolver at her pursuer.

Helen escaped when she entered a farm house late yesterday seeking transportation. She terrified the farm wife who called officers and before Helen, clad in overalls and a man's shirt and shoes, was a mile away she was overtaken by Martin.

Martin said, "I told her to halt. With her hands up."

"She leveled a revolver at me, and I blasted once with my shotgun. The shot killed her."

The girl escaped from the Jacksonville state prison farm for women early yesterday, slugged a watchman and took his revolver. She left behind a note reading:

"To whom it may concern: I'll never be taken alive."

LIGHTNING KILLS FARMER, 28

CLAY MARSHALL FARM IS SCENE OF TRAGEDY

Father of Four Victim; Two Horses Also Struck Down by Bolt; Marshall Runs Tractor Through Field Escaping Elements.

Struck by lightning while he was seeking shelter from a severe electrical and rain storm which struck the northeast section of Pickaway-co Wednesday evening, Zacharias C. Smith, aged 28, father of four children, was killed instantly.

Two fine horses belonging to Clay Marshall, Madison-twp, near Marcy, which Smith was driving, were also killed by the bolt.

Smith had been helping with the threshing and was hurrying to shelter when he was struck. His clothing was torn from his body, the heels of his shoes split and the spectacles he wore were melted.

FOUND BY MARSHALL
Marshall, driving a tractor from the field was trailing Smith. He saw the flash of lightning and heard the terrific claps of thunder, and when he reached the top of a bank which revealed Smith and the

BARS NEGROES FROM PRIMARY

TEXAS ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES THEY CANNOT VOTE IN DEMOCRATIC ELECTION.

DALLAS, Tex., July 12.—In an opinion handed down here today, Attorney General James V. Allred held that negroes are not entitled to vote in the Democratic primary on July 28.

The attorney general based his opinion on a resolution passed at the 1932 state Democratic convention which limited participation in the primaries to white voters. Allred held that the power to determine the membership of a political party is inherent. He said this phase of the question was not decided in the celebrated Nixon case in which the U. S. Supreme court held that the state Democratic executive committee was without authority to bar negroes.

At the recent meeting of the state Democratic executive committee in Austin no action was taken on the question of negro voting and the matter was left up to county committees.

Allred is a candidate for governor.

SEARCH SPREADING FOR MISSING YOUTH

NORMAN, Okla., July 12.—Authorities today intensified the search for Neal Myers, young pharmacy student, as they awaited reports of chemists concerning the death of 20-year-old Marion Mills, University of Oklahoma beauty queen.

Chemical analysis of the girl's vital organs was ordered by County Attorney Paul Updegraff. He revealed, when he learned the girl was to become a mother and was informed by Mrs. Hazel Brown, in whose home the body of the girl was found Tuesday, that Myers had obtained a prescription for the girl.

Myers told her Miss Mills was to become a mother last March or April, Mrs. Brown said. She told Updegraff the girl, who is the daughter of E. M. Mills, an assistant professor in the university engineering school, had been taking a "quack" preparation to prevent motherhood.

Mrs. Brown said Myers came to her last Monday night and said he had obtained a prescription and asked for a place to stay while the preparation was being taken. "I consented to protect the girl's reputation," she told Updegraff.

The deceased was affiliated with all the local Masonic bodies and had been an elder in the First Presbyterian church for 15 years. His father before him served as an elder in the church. Mr. May belonged to the lodge, chapter, council and commandery of the Masonic organization being a past high priest of the chapter and past eminent commander of Scioto Commandery No. 35. He held the latter office for two years, 1931 and 1932. Politically he was a Republican.

TWIN CITIES FACE TIE-UP

St. Paul Teamsters To Join Minneapolis Truck Drivers In Walk Out.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 12.—A complete paralysis of commerce and possible riots threatened the twin cities today as Minneapolis truck drivers, helpers and inside men prepared to strike at midnight Monday with the promise that they would be joined in the walkout by the St. Paul teamsters' local.

More than 3000 union men voted the strike at a mass meeting here last night, after learning that St. Paul teamsters would probably vote to join them at a mass meeting to be held today.

E. H. Dunningham, special federal mediator, indicated he feared a renewal of the violence of last May, when one man was killed and many injured, unless the case was submitted to arbitration at once and the walkout prevented.

Last spring state militia were called out to restore and maintain order.

The teamsters have indicated a willingness to arbitrate, but the employers' association has refused.

Spends Day Inspecting Canal Zone Defenses; Embarks Tonight.

BALBOA, C. Z.—July 12.—Greeted by crowds wherever he goes, President Roosevelt spent his last day ashore before heading directly for Hawaii in motoring about old Panama today and inspecting the canal's land defenses.

Military authorities, who privately express the belief that the canal could be destroyed by a powerful enemy, hope to convince the president and Secretary of War Dorn, who accompanied him here, of the need for additional defenses. The president showed the greatest interest when he was inspecting the batteries defending the canal and asked many questions of army officers.

Later, accompanied by President Arias of Panama, he visited the ruins of the ancient Panama city which flourished in the sixteenth century.

Tonight he starts a twelve day cruise with Hawaii the only stop. The presidential "yacht," the United States cruiser Houston, and the cruiser New Orleans, bearing newspapermen and secret service men who are accompanying the president, anchored close to a large Japanese liner here today while the crews enjoyed the day in fishing.

Containers, Givens Meet; Rain Hits Wednesday Tilt

Rain again interfered with recreation ball league activities, Wednesday evening, when the scheduled contest between the Eshelman Feeds and Circleville Oils was washed out.

The downpour that started about 5 o'clock continued until after 7 making play impossible. The game would have eliminated one of the league's unbeaten teams from the perfect column. The Eshelman outfit has won two frays while the Oils have been permitted to play only one in the second half rain stopping the tilt with the Mecca a week ago.

GOOD GAME TONIGHT

If rain does not again interfere the Container Corporation, juggled considerably since it was beaten by the Eshelman Feeds, meets the Given Oil Co. team this evening.

Manager Norris of the C. C. of A. may present an entirely new outfield with a new pitcher, too. Eddie Watson, however, may ascend the mound.

Lester Harris, manager of the colored organization, said Thursday that he had signed Bill Grant on his squad in place of Ike Davis. The transfer leaves the Givens with 12 eligible players.

The game this evening should be a real interesting one.

KID CHOCOLATE. THE Cuban bon-bon who at one time was regarded as the best that could be offered in featherweight fistic circles, appears as finally on the road to oblivion—Pete Hayes, who would have been duck-soup for the Kead a couple of years ago, gradually wore him down until his efforts were nil.

Speaking of boxing why couldn't someone make some money in the boxing and wrestling 'racket' in Circleville? * * * The C. A. C. gymnasium, idle now, should be an excellent place for a ring. There are a number of good boys especially wrestlers in the district who would provide an interesting evening if the PROPER MANAGEMENT could be obtained—Columbus is having mammoth crowds and Chillicothe, too, is making money in the wrestling game.

ASHVILLE NINE SCHEDULED IN CRUCIAL FRAY

Meets Brice at Ashville; Victory Would Win First Half Title; Meier to Hurl.

One of the feature ball games of the season will be played Sunday at Ashville Community park with the Pickaway countians to meet the Brice Hanna Motor sales in the most important tilt of the central Ohio league.

Ashville is leading the Brice outfit in nice style but to lose would force the team to win its last two games to clinch the first half title. A victory would make the first half championship certain.

Art Meier, crack right hander, is scheduled to work for Ashville with Cooksie, a left hander, on the mound for the invading team. Cooksie fanned 12 Ashville batters early in the season.

Considerable local interest surrounds the Ashville team. Art Walker, third sacker for the Circleville Oils in the softball loop, plays that position for the Ashvillers. GoeBee Stoker, fiery manager, is operating the Ashville team, and Harry Neff, of Groveport, who used to catch the slants of Gardner Dewey, is behind the bat for the villagers.

Other well known players are in the Ashville lineup:

A capacity crowd is predicted for this ball game with play to start at 2:30 p. m. with central Ohio league umpires in charge.

HEISE IS VICTOR

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 12.—Their five-game losing streak ended with a 11-to-5 victory, the Columbus Red Birds met the St. Paul Apostles here again today.

The Saints yesterday touched Clarence Heise, Birds' pitcher, for 13 hits, but were unable to bunt them. The Birds made 14 hits, four of them by Tom Angley, catcher, who alone accounted for five runs. One of his efforts was a four-bagger with two on.

The Birds are still in third place in the American association pennant fight.

YANKEES START IMPORTANT TRIP

NEW YORK, July 12.—Safely past the first obstacle in the long tour through the big bad west which is supposed to make or break them in their fight for the American league pennant, the league leading New York Yankees today moved into Detroit where the first real tough opposition will be met in Mickey Cochrane's clawing Tigers.

While one victory is only a drop in the bucket it is likely the Yankees are thankful for it, since it was on this same sort of jaunt last year that they left New York a rollicking crowd of athletes only to fall apart on the road and finish up five games behind the Washington Senators. Ultimately, that disastrous jaunt cost them the flag.

Johnny Murphy, who had proved himself a real asset at home, further established himself as a full route pitcher when he hurled the Yankees to a 9 to 4 victory over the Indians yesterday. It is upon the youngsters such as Murphy and Deshong that Manager Joe McCarthy is counting to help ease the burden of the regulars through the west.

Murphy allowed seven hits and his cause was nobly aided by the Indians who kindly chipped in with no less than six errors.

U. S. MAY INSTALL BEETLE TRAPS HERE

In an attempt to ascertain whether or not the Japanese beetle, a destructive insect, is in this region, the U. S. Department of Agriculture will place 132 traps in Circleville this week, it was learned today.

Gerald Denver, who will wear a federal badge and have full charge of the traps in this city, Washington C. H. and Chillicothe, will make frequent inspections of the traps to ascertain if any of the beetles are in this territory.

Circleville, Chillicothe and Washington C. H. will each have 132 traps, located in back-yards, on lawns and possibly two or three on the court house lawn. They are government property and must not be disturbed.

It is expected that a number of local men will assist in placing the traps, which will remain here the rest of the season.

Motion Picture Moguls Promise Cleaner Films

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., July 12.—The czars of the motion picture world today had made their promised move to clean up the films being shown in the 16,800 theaters of the United States.

The move, which was announced after a conference between the leading film executives and Will H. Hays, headman of the Association of Picture Producers, Inc., it was revealed, may cost the producers a maximum of $10,000,000.

WASH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep... Vigor... Vitality

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 miles of kidney tubes need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up at night, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness. If kidneys don't empty 3 pints every day and get rid of 4 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS... a doctor's prescription... which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. But don't take chances with strong drugs or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to fix you up in 15 minutes, for they may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS... the old reliable relief that contain no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

The Third National Bank

"Where Service Predominates."

It also marks the first break in the heretofore ironclad blockbooking rule of the producers, in that it will permit theater owners to omit from exhibition any film released prior to July 15 against which there is a genuine moral protest.

CODE IS CHANGED
At the same time the producers, after a long, closely guarded conference with Hays, announced that changes had been made in the production code of the industry.

Under the new arrangement the board of directors of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America assumes final responsibility for the character of the pictures produced.

Joseph I. Breen, assistant to Hays, will be vested with wide powers in designating what is moral and what is immoral in the pictures which Hollywood will produce in the future.

There will be no appeal to a jury of producers as at first planned, the only appeal from the decisions of Breen being to the directors of the producers and distributors.

It also was announced that no company will distribute or exhibit any picture which has not been approved by the code administration. In commenting on the new plan Hays said:

"It is recognized that the solution of the problem of the right kind of screen entertainment rests solely with the quality of the product and these strengthening arrangements are directed to discharging that responsibility more effectively."

ALL MAJORS SIGN
All of the major companies have agreed to the plan including, Columbia Pictures Corporation; Cecil B. DeMille Productions, Inc.; Walt Disney Productions, Inc.; Education Studios, Inc.; First National; Fox Film Corporation; Samuel Goldwyn, Ltd.; Inspiration Pictures, Inc.; Jesse L. Lasky Productions; Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Inc.; Paramount Pictures, Inc.; Pathe Exchange, Inc.; Principal Pictures Corporation; Reliance Pictures Corporation; RCA Photophone, Inc.; Hal Roach Studios, Inc.; Charles R. Rogers, Inc.; Twentieth Century Pictures, Inc.; Universal Picture Corporation; Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc.; United Artists Corporation and others.

Thus the film world answered the demands which have swept the nation in the last few weeks for a higher moral grade of picture. The July 15 date was set, it was explained because on that time the one-man censorship of Breen becomes effective.

Church for Tourists

PORTLAND, Ore.—Centenary-Wilbur Methodist church here this summer will set a precedent for churches of this city. Instead of closing the doors during the warm weather period, as has been the custom in the past, the church will add a third service, an early one-hour service for tourists, vacationists and others who may wish to worship before leaving the city for the day.

CINCINNATI.—Spurning the usual commonplace jobs of minding babies, waiting table and washing dishes, Enrique Miles, student at the University of Cincinnati here, is working his way through college by making parachute jumps.

TRUSTY KILLS

Helen first received notice when she took the law into her own hands at the trial of the alleged slayer of her father. Courtroom attendants were panicked as the quiet of the court was suddenly broken by a gun shot. Helen, from a front row seat, had shot and fatally wounded the defendant, Jack Worls.

Brought to trial, Helen was convicted and sentenced to prison for five years. While awaiting an appeal to the supreme court she procured a job as a waitress in a Dewitt, Ark., restaurant owned by Jim Bohots. Shortly afterwards Bohots was found slain in his automobile.

Suspected of the slaying, she was severely questioned but released. Then she served two years in prison for the killing of Worls. Paroled, she came to Little Rock, worked in a restaurant, and then astounded authorities by walking into the police station and boldly confessing the murder of Bohots.

Tried, she was convicted and received a 10 year sentence.

ESCAPED 3 TIMES
Three times she escaped from the prison farm, but was captured and returned. The fourth time she swore she would never be returned alive. And today her lifeless, bullet-shattered body awaited a prison burial.

YOUNGSTOWN.—The city's relief list is now 5,000, the lowest in three years.

JOHNSON HITS BORAH'S STAND

Names Him 'Sabotaging Gentleman'; Begins 30-Day Combination Tour.

WATERLOO, Ia., July 12.—Striking at Senator Borah, insurgent Republican critic of the National Recovery Administration, and other "sabotaging gentlemen," Recovery Administrator Hugh S. Johnson began his 30-day combination speaking tour and vacation in a speech at the coliseum here today.

"Failure to distinguish between the president's Recovery program and the NRA," was cited by Johnson as the cause for much unwarranted criticism.

"They are not the same thing at all," Johnson observed and continued:

NRA ONLY PART
"NRA is only a part of the president's broad scheme and a very small part. So when anybody tells you that NRA and the Blue Eagle have not done for the farmer all that he hoped, you can tell them to go jump in the lake. NRA had no such protean duty. It was set up to do for city workers what AAA was charged with doing for farmers."

"In the first place, in the year ended May 31, 1934, employment in this country has increased by 32 per cent—All payrolls have increased by 28 percent and payrolls in manufacture (where NRA has the most direct effect) have increased by 57 percent."

"During the same period, the cost of living increased only 11 percent."

OBERLIN.—A distinguished service medal, emblematic of the highest honor, of the Oberlin college alumni association was recently given to Dr. Dan F. Bradley, Cleveland Congregationalist pastor.

FATE OF RECLUSE'S KILLER GIVEN JURY

JACKSON, July 12.—The fate of Herbert Thacker, 21-year-old negro, accused of first degree murder in the slaying of Stephen Huntley, aged recluse, today was placed in the hands of the jury after Prosecutor Fred Everetts demanded the death penalty for the youth.

Thacker broke down and cried at his trial when his mother took the stand to relate that "I always tried to raise my boy right; I tried to make him like a girl, and had him help me wash dishes and clean house; I always made him go to church."

The youth, from the witness stand admitted a part in the crime but blamed the actual killing on Ray Freeman, his companion. Freeman will be placed on trial Monday.

Streamlined Ships

BOSTON.—Stream lining has come to naval architecture. Appearance of the Arctic, second of the two British tramp steamers to be built on the stream line principle, in Boston harbor, caused widespread interest along the waterfront and elicited the information from her captain, Keith Williams, that his ship burned five tons less of coal per day than other steamers of a similar class.

SANDUSKY.—A serum inoculation against "June Bug Fever," which has been prevalent here since June Bugs began invading this city in billions the past few weeks, was announced by Ollie Pecord, Toledo pathologist at Good Samaritan hospital here.

The serum, which is secured from the bugs after they have been subjected to drying process, have proven successful in repeated tests Pecord said. The "June Bug Fever," he said, acts very much like common hay-fever.

Does Russia Face
Famine?

RUSSIA, which for years has been experimenting with planned economy, has failed to provide against a threatened famine which may take as many as 10,000,000 lives, if the situation in that country pictured by Dr. Ewald Ammende is the true one.

Dr. Ammende is secretary of the interconfessional and international aid committee for the starvation districts in Soviet Russia. He arrived in New York the other day to represent Cardinal Imtizer, Archbishop of Vienna, to the public opinion on a condition which the committee charges, is being concealed by the soviet government.

Ten million persons, he said, are facing starvation next fall and winter because of the effect of the drought on the Russian wheat crop. The committee of which he is secretary plans to make a worldwide appeal to nations with grain surpluses to turn over their stores to the Moscow government for distribution among the hungry.

Although Russian officials have denied that the danger of famine exists, Dr. Ammende pointed out that they did the same thing in 1920-1921 when a similar condition existed, but when other nations tendered help their offers were accepted by the government which then "admitted the terrible conditions among the Russian peasants."

If the situation is as bad as described, it is one to appeal for the sympathy of mankind throughout the world. There is enough surplus grain in existence to go far in relieving it. Should an appeal be made by the Russian government, there is no doubt that it would bring a liberal response. For other nations to offer aid, though, without authoritative information that such was needed would seem a little presumptuous. It seems almost inconceivable that any government could see 10,000,000 of its people facing starvation without going to the most extreme lengths to save them.

The average man's notion of thrift is to spend the usual amount on tobacco and save on meat.

Honest Man Found

IN this day of crime, ranging from petty theft to wholesale murder for personal gain, it is more than refreshing to find an honest man.

Were Diogenes alive, he would be able to end his search at a certain gasoline filling station at Beetown, Wis., with the light from his lantern shining in the face of Erskine L. Auel.

The honesty of Mr. Auel was demonstrated in connection with a purchase of gasoline made by Weldell V. Phillips, of Milwaukee, to whom goes the credit for finding what Diogenes long ago sought.

Mr. Phillips ordered 10 gallons of gasoline. After the fuel had been put in his car he paid for 10 gallons and resumed his journey. Sometime later, he received a letter postmarked Beetown. It was from the filling station proprietor. In it was 59 cents in stamps, and a note explaining this was a refund on the gasoline purchased by Mr. Phillips. "I charged you for 10 gallons," the note said, "but you got only seven, which I discovered after you had gone."

Investigation by the Milwaukee man revealed that the gasoline dealer, who knew only that his customer was from Milwaukee and drove a certain make and color of car, had spent several dollars in telephone calls and otherwise in learning his name and address in order to refund the 59 cents.

Mr. Auel seems to be not only an honest man but a man naturally endowed with some of the qualifications that go to make a good detective. He might try his hand at finding Dillinger.

THE LONE WOLF SON
by LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

SYNOPSIS

Aboard the S.S. "Navarre," bound for New York, Michael Lanyard, reformed "Lone Wolf" and underworld celebrity, is reunited with his son whom he thought dead. The boy, "Maurice Parry," has followed in the "Lone Wolf's" footsteps, but Lanyard hopes his son's interest in Fennos Crozier, lovely daughter of the wealthy Mrs. Fay Crozier, will prove a good influence. Maurice steals Mrs. Crozier's Habsburg emeralds. Lanyard retrieves them for Fay. Detective Crane warns Lanyard to watch out for the vengeance of "Jack Knife" Anderson and "English Archie," two gunmen whom Lanyard exposed for cheating Maurice at cards. Shortly afterwards, the gangsters looking for Crozier's emeralds and plant them in Lanyard's cabin. Maurice saves his father by substituting imitations and secretly placing the emeralds in the purser's care for Fay. Notwithstanding Lanyard's innocence, Detective Boyce for his son's but later, when one of "Jack Knife's" accomplices tries to intimidate Lanyard into stealing the emeralds and splitting fifty-fifty with the gang, Maurice appears on the scene, masked. He knocks the gangster unconscious, planting a string of pearls stolen from the notorious gold-digger, Tess Boyce, in the thug's pocket. Tess, in gratitude to Maurice for catching the thief, gives a dinner in his honor. Lanyard disapproves of the society of Tess Boyce for his son's but Fennos asks him to leave Maurice to her. Discussing the Boyce robbery, Plon informs Lanyard that the prisoner swore Lanyard and Maurice planted the necklace on him. M. Isquith, Tess's companion, compliments her on her progress with Maurice and Lanyard, adding that they will have them where they want them. Crane is suspicious of Tess's interest in Maurice. He surmises the truth about the Boyce robbery.

CHAPTER XXII

"It is your belief that this Etienne Carrel is an undertrapper of our smoking-room friends?"

"I'd bet money on it. If things hadn't turned out like they did," Crane pursued, studiously tamping his pipe again, "to show that Lanyard was at liberty to join as he liked; he wasn't watching. 'I'd've guessed they sent him in on you to put the fear of Satan in your innocent heart—figurin' maybe you didn't realize what an iron-clad combination you were buckin'."

"On this, Crane paused with a frank grin for Lanyard, as much as to say: 'Well, that's that. I've let you see I'm nobody's fool, but well-disposed. But if you don't think it's time to make use of me as a friend, if you prefer to keep your counsel yet a while, there's no harm done and something gained; we understand each other.' To which Lanyard returned a smile of entire comprehension.

"And I'm keepin' you up, and you don't know what for yet."

"I am not impatient—I who never spend a minute in your company without profit. You were speaking of Madame Boyce and her friends, intimating that you questioned their motives in making much of my son."

"They're a hard lot," Crane gravely nodded. "That little lady has never been known to do nothing for nothing. If she's pickin' up with your Maurice now it's for a purpose. She's as cold as they come—never been in love yet with anything but a big bank-balance."

"Oh, come now! Surely a little dinner and social evening, is no more than a polite return for service rendered."

"You'd think so; but you don't know all I know. Let me tell you there's more community of interest than people dream of between the underworld and the high-steppers in New York's night life. Tess Boyce wouldn't last a week—bumpin' around night-clubs and lookin' like Tiffany's show window, the way she does; she'd go the way Dot King went, and be found cold in bed."

"Mason Buskirk and K. O. Hill are booked in the main go at Scippo tonight."

"Fred Wittich has accepted a position as caterer at the Pickaway club."

AT THE CLIFTONA

It's all in fun, of course, but if "You're Telling Me," the Paramount film starring W. C. Fields, which comes on Friday and Saturday to the Cliftona Theatre, is to be relied upon, then the millennium has arrived.

For, as a feather-brained inventor, Fields has perfected non-upsettable drinking glasses, a non-slicing golf ball, non-melting highball ice and various other human aids for which man has been waiting since time immemorial.

Of course, some of them are patterned after the trick Rube Goldberg devices, but they're in the picture nevertheless.

some morning without as much as a rhinestone, if she didn't have protection, if she didn't stand in with the racketeers. Take this Isquith mug she's so thick with: Where'd he come from? Where'd he pick up his money? Who gave him his license to act like that, as if the run of folks were dirt beneath his feet, when he's trainin' all the time with Tess Boyce and her kind? If he was the heavy ass-tocrat he lets on, he'd rather be seen dead than in such company. What's this Sultan of Swat, or whatever his name is, taggin' along with the likes of Tess for? I'd admire to tell you."

"Please do."

"When I know for sure, I will. Just now, I'm here to tell you something I'm sure about. After you'd left that party last evening—"

"You saw me with them? But I looked for you before I came below and couldn't find you."

"Yeah, not been seen when I don't want to be part of my act. After you cleared out, somebody suggested a game of contract. They took a table in the smokin'-room and kept the stakes high and the liquor flowin'. The Pasha of Phut is a nut about cards; Isquith plays a mean hand; and Tess Boyce is no slouch; but the coin they let that kid of yours win was something sinful. The session broke up about half an hour ago; Isquith blew off to bed and so did His Royal Nibs—and pretty sure he was, too, bein' the big loser. Tess took your boy for a walk on deck—said the night was simply too divine for anybody to turn in so early."

"Awhile later I accidentally passed behind them while they were holding the rail down in a dark stretch of the boat-deck. If the young one's left ear wasn't blistered, it's a miracle—her red head was so hot; but the coin they let that kid of yours win was something sinful. The session broke up about half an hour ago; Isquith blew off to bed and so did His Royal Nibs—and pretty sure he was, too, bein' the big loser. Tess took your boy for a walk on deck—said the night was simply too divine for anybody to turn in so early."

"But why?" Lanyard remonstrated. "What conceivable end has Mademoiselle Boyce to gain by poisoning Maurice's mind against me?"

"I might make a guess, but if it wasn't good, she could sue me for criminal slander. Wait till I know what this Freddy Isquith's right name is and what His Tan Highness is doing so far from home, and makin' whoopee with tramps—and maybe I'll tell you. But if it was my boy, I know what I'd do. I'd pursue, rising and giving Lanyard's hand a hard squeeze; I'd horn right into that line-up, edge Maurice out, and keep both ears open to catch their signals. Good night—and don't forget to lock the door behind me."

If Lanyard lay wakeful till nearly dawn, mulling over the new questions which Crane's call had opened, the new aspects it lent old ones, and all to no profit; if he dropped off at length on no more comfortable finding than that he and his son both were meshed in a web of intrigue that would tax his every resource to break, yet must be rent lest it strangle his hopes for Maurice and uproot his own life from the place in the sun he had struggled so to give it; if he turned up on deck, in consequence, hardly before noon, feeling as old as Time and as useless as an inferiority complex, he permitted nothing of all this to glimpse through his countenance.

And the face of the day, too, was unruined, as fair as if it had harbored only happy ends for mortal cares—as fair as a pretty woman's smile, as Fay Crozier's for him when Lanyard found her taking life lazily in a deck-chair.

"How nice of you to turn up looking like that, so wise and kind, just when I'm feeling put-upon and misunderstood!" A wave of a hand perhaps a trifle plump but still as young as her daughter's consigned Lanyard to the vacant chair beside her. "Do sit down and tell me you believe with me that exercise is stupid, dieting a fallacy, and nothing one wants to do either unwise or immoral."

"Exercise is for adolescents, dear madame," Lanyard dutifully assured her, "something for them to do with their bodies who have nothing to do with their minds. Diets are insults to any connoisseur of food with a fair digestion. Nothing is immoral except doing the things that bore one."

"Charming man you are," Fay purred, "—so understanding! That brat of mine has been giving me the devil all morning. It seems I'm a glutton and a drone and a felon."

"Felon, madame!"

"Well, potentially—because I wanted to duck the duty on those cursed emeralds, and still froth at the mouth every time I think how much I'll have to pay through the nose before I can land them. I shall be broke for months!" Fay wailed.

"That wretched husband of mine keeps me on a rigid allowance, you know, and positively refuses ever to let me draw advances—never will get cured of the notion that tyranny is the way to teach me a lesson!"

"Why not land them in bond, then? The customs will hold them till you find it less bother to pay—"

"And give up swinging it over all the women in Southerton next week? That's how much use you are!"

"Sorry," if Lanyard wouldn't trouble to look anything but entertained, he did offer to abandon the topic: "Have you by any chance seen anything of my child this morning?"

"He's somewhere about," the disgruntled lady shortly answered, "—with Fennos. Taking exercise!" she snorted. "Just before you came up, they were pounding the deck together like a pair of monomaniacs—so many laps to the mile, so many miles to the hour! What they're up to now I haven't any idea. Anyway," she resumed, declining to be put off her grievance, "I've already wireless my bank to have somebody meet me on the dock with the money."

"May one, without the least desire to seem officious, venture to hope Madame dispatched at least one other message?"

"What about? What for?"

"In point of common prudence—for the protection of the emeralds."

"Fay made blank eyes."

"But has it not occurred to you, madame, that—in view of the two attempts to steal them already—it would be well to provide against possible further attempts, which can now be made only after they have passed through the customs?"

"Don't be silly. The emeralds won't be out of my possession a single instant after we land. My husband's going to meet me; one of our own cars will take us to our townhouse for the night; the next day we'll motor straight out to Southampton. And as you say, I've had two warnings. Anybody that thinks he can get those stones away from me now will have to do it over my dead body."

"And do you seriously suppose he would hesitate?" Surely the police news in your newspapers, such as to satisfy us that your new school of hold-up operatives seldom stick at murder?"

"What are you driving at, my friend?" Lanyard marked with relief a flicker of real dismay in the famous blue eyes. "Do you know something you haven't told me?"

"The reasonable inference from what you yourself know should be enough. These two attempted robberies—and particularly the bold and brutal nature of the second—surely are proof enough that your emeralds are being hunted by a gang of criminals as unscrupulous as enterprising. The third try will unquestionably be made at the first opportunity."

attempts to solve our international question," he said. Dr. Dewey criticized parts of President Roosevelt's program, particularly the NRA, which he said was conflicting in itself. "Both the employer and labor are given specified rights in the NRA codes but to date, labor has been left pretty much out in the cold," he asserted.

He praised the Tennessee Valley Authority project, declaring that it would be an excellent yard-stick to measure the costs of electrical energy in the future. "One of the most important parts of the New Deal and the only part, which if worked out, will assure any security in the future," Dr. Dewey said, "is the planning division of the NRA." This, he said, has been almost totally disregarded and he criticized General Hugh Johnson for not taking a more active part in it.

This, he said, has been almost totally disregarded and he criticized General Hugh Johnson for not taking a more active part in it.

He praised the Tennessee Valley Authority project, declaring that it would be an excellent yard-stick to measure the costs of electrical energy in the future.

DADS' ACCEPT BRAUGHT PLEA; CONFER TODAY

Commissioners Go to Columbus for Relief Talk at 3:30 O'clock

RESULT UNCERTAIN

Much Concern Over Importation of Labor

Pickaway - co commissioners, meeting Thursday to discuss old age pension applications on which they took no final action, accepted an invitation of Major E. O. Braught, state relief director, to confer with him in his office this afternoon. The meeting was set for 3:30 o'clock.

Braught's request that they meet with him came over telephone and was considered an official invitation by the "county dads." A request for a meeting published in The Herald two weeks ago was not regarded as "official" by the commissioners.

FAMILIES GET FOOD

COLUMBUS, July 12.—Distribution of 400 carloads of potatoes, about 12,000,000 pounds, to needy families throughout Ohio will start in about a week, state relief commissioners announced today. It is planned to furnish each of the 200,000 families listed on the state relief rolls with 15 pounds of potatoes weekly. Distribution will be made through county relief agencies.

TO DISCUSS RELIEF

It is believed the topic for discussion will be restoration of state and federal relief to Pickaway-co which was withdrawn July 1 after a disagreement between the commissioners and the relief office. Since that time no relief at all has been coming here with the commissioners intending to handle their own problem.

A report, later confirmed, that out-of-the-county labor, probably from Franklin-co, would be sent here to complete the airport project caused much concern through the city with a number of civic leaders expressing their displeasure over the importation of workers when there are so many here who need occupation. The only way local workers will be used is for the county to accept the state relief statutes for relief.

HOPE FOR BEST

What the result of the conference will be is not known; it is not certain what line or approach Major Braught will take but it is hoped for the good of all concerned that something can be done to prevent outside labor from being brought to Circleville when local workers need the money and local business would thereby be benefited.

ROTARIANS HEAR DEWEY, ECONOMIST

Ohio State Professor Applauds New Deal; Lauds Valley Authority.

A joint meeting of the London and Circleville Rotary clubs heard an economist's appraisal of the New Deal in an annual gathering at the London Country club Wednesday evening.

Dr. Ralph L. Dewey, of the department of economics at Ohio State university, the speaker, declared that the New Deal was inevitable because of existing conditions. "Our country's leaders had failed to solve the problem of business cycles, the great problem of poverty and had failed to take any steps to check the mal-administration of industry or make any

TRUSTY KILLS FLEEING GIRL

Helen Spence Eaton, Slayer of Two, Shot to Death During Gunfight.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 12.—A pretty brunette who had crowded the slaying of two men and four prison escapes into her twenty-two years of life, lay dead today, shot down by a trusty.

Helen Spence Eaton made good her threat that she would never be taken alive.

She was shot down by Frank Martin, himself a convicted killer, as she leveled her revolver at her pursuer.

Helen, when she entered a farm house late yesterday seeking transportation. She terrified the farm wife who called officers and found Helen, clad in overalls and a man's shirt and shoes, was a mile away she was overtaken by Martin.

Martin said, "I told her to halt. With her hands up."

"She leveled a revolver at me, and I blasted once with my shot-gun. The shot killed her."

The girl escaped from the Jacksonville state prison farm for women early yesterday, slugged a watchman and took his revolver. She left behind a note reading:

"To whom it may concern: I'll never be taken alive."

Through the day a posse behind baying bloodhounds culled the woods for her. It was thought she heard the baying hounds overtaking her and rushed into the farmhouse to commandeer an auto.

The girl slayer was overtaken in a dense wood about 10 miles from Jacksonville. Her pursuers had Ira L. May, aged 80, one of Circleville's best known men, died at his home, 108 S. Pickaway-st., Thursday at 8:30 a. m. Mr. May had suffered from heart trouble for a number of years. Angina pectoris was the immediate cause of death.

The deceased was affiliated with all the local Masonic bodies and had been an elder in the First Presbyterian church for 15 years. His father, before him, served as an elder in the church. Mr. May belonged to the lodge, chapter, council and commandery of the Masonic organization being a past high priest of the chapter and past eminent commander of Scioto Commandery No. 35. He held the latter office for two years, 1905 and 1906. Politically he was a Republican.

WIDOW, SONS SURVIVE

Mr. May is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ada Jessie Lutz May, whom he married Sept. 11, 1879; three sons, Lutz of Clarkburg, W. Va., Percy of Wayne-twp. and Leslie, 303 E. Franklin-st.; a sister, Miss Rose O. May, of Berkeley, Cal., and six grandchildren.

Mr. May was born in this city, in the property now occupied by Mrs. Pauline Friedman, E. Mound-st. on March 28, 1854, a son of Michael and Mary Lutz May. He resided in this city until a short time after his graduation from the high school in 1870 when he removed to the family's Wayne-twp property with his mother and sister, his father having passed away six months previously. At the age of 16 he was in charge of the 400 acre estate.

Fourteen years ago Mr. and Mrs. May removed to this city.

TWIN CITIES FACE TIE-UP

St. Paul Teamsters To Join Minneapolis Truck Drivers In Walk Out.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 12.—A complete paralysis of commerce and possible riots threatened the twin cities today as Minneapolis truck drivers, helpers and inside men prepared to strike at midnight Monday with the promise that they would be joined in the walkout by the St. Paul teamsters' local.

More than 3000 union men voted the strike at a mass meeting here last night, after learning that St. Paul teamsters would probably vote to join them at a mass meeting to be held today.

E. H. Dunningan, special federal mediator, indicated he feared a renewal of the violence of last May, when one man was killed and many injured, unless the case is submitted to arbitration at once and the walkout prevented.

Last spring state militia were called out to restore and maintain order.

The teamsters have indicated a willingness to arbitrate, but the employers' association has refused.

FDR READY TO SAIL PACIFIC

Spends Day Inspecting Canal Zone Defenses; Embarks Tonight.

BALBOA, C. Z.—July 12.—Greeted by crowds wherever he goes, President Roosevelt spent his last day ashore before heading directly for Hawaii in motorboat about old Panama today and inspecting the canal's land defenses.

Military authorities, who privately express the belief that the canal could be destroyed by a powerful enemy, hope to convince the president and Secretary of War, who accompanied him here, of the need for additional defenses. The president showed the greatest interest when he was inspecting the batteries defending the canal and asked many questions of army officers.

Later, accompanied by President Arias of Panama, he visited the ruins of the ancient Panama city which flourished in the sixteenth century.

Tonight he starts a twelve day cruise with Hawaii the only stop. KID CHOCOLATE. THE Cuban bon-bon who at one time was regarded as the best that could be offered in featherweight fistic circles, appears as finally on the road to oblivion—Petey Hayes, who would have been duck-soup for the Keed a couple of years ago, gradually wore him down until his efforts were nil.

Speaking of boxing why couldn't someone make some money in the boxing and wrestling 'racket' in Cincinnati? * * * The C. A. C. gymnasium, idle now, should be an excellent place for a ring. There are a number of good boys especially wrestlers in the district who would provide an interesting evening if the PROPER MANAGEMENT could be obtained—Columbus is having mammoth crowds and Chillicothe, too, is making money in the wrestling game.

ASHVILLE NINE SCHEDULED IN CRUCIAL FRAY

Meets Brice at Ashville; Victory Would Win First Half Title; Meier to Hurl.

One of the feature ball games of the season will be played Sunday at Ashville Community park with the Pickaway countians to meet the Brice Hanna Motor sales in the most important tilt of the central Ohio league.

Ashville is leading the Brice outfit in nice style but to lead would force the team to win its last two games to clinch the first half title. A victory would make the first half championship certain.

Art Meier, crack right hander, is scheduled to work for Ashville with Cooksie, a left hander, on the mound for the invading team. Cooksie fanned 12 Ashville batters early in the season.

Considerable local interest surrounds the Ashville team. Art Walker, third sacker for the Circleville Oils in the softball loop, plays that position for the Ashville team. GeeBee Stoker, fiery manager, is operating the Ashville team, and Harry Neff, of Groveport, who used to catch the slants of Gardner Dewey, is behind the bat for the villagers.

Other well known players are in the Ashville lineup: A capacity crowd is predicted for this ball game with play to start at 2:30 p. m. with central Ohio league umpires in charge.

The Birds are still in third place in the American association pennant fight.

YANKIES START IMPORTANT TRIP

NEW YORK, July 12.—Safely past the first obstacle in the long tour through the big bad west which is supposed to make or break them in their fight for the American League pennant, the league leading New York Yankees today moved into Detroit where the first real tough opposition will be met in Mickey Cochrane's clawing Tigers.

While one victory is only a drop in the bucket it is likely the Yankees are thankful for it, since it was on this same sort of jaunt last year that they left New York a rollicking crowd of athletes only to fall apart on the road and finish up five games behind the Washington Senators. Ultimately, that disastrous jaunt cost them the flag.

Johnny Murphy, who had proved himself a real asset at home, further established himself as a full route pitcher when he hurled the Yanks to a 9 to 4 victory over the Indians yesterday. It is upon the youngsters such as Murphy, and Deshong that Manager Joe McCarthy is counting to help ease the burden of the regulars through the west.

Murphy allowed seven hits and his cause was nobly aided by the Indians who kindly chipped in with no less than six errors.

U. S. MAY INSTALL BEETLE TRAPS HERE

In an attempt to ascertain whether or not the Japanese beetle, a destructive insect, is in this region, the U. S. Department of Agriculture will place 132 traps in Cincinnati this week, it was learned today.

Gerald Denver, who will wear a federal badge and have full charge of the traps in this city, Washington C. H. and Chillicothe, will make frequent inspections of the traps to ascertain if any of the beetles are in this territory.

Cincinnati, Chillicothe and Washington C. H. will each have 132 traps, located in back-yards, on lawns and possibly two or three on the court house lawn. They are government property and must not be disturbed.

It is expected that a number of local men will assist in placing the traps, which will remain here the rest of the season.

TRUSTY KILLS

Helen first received notice when she took the law into her own hands at the trial of the alleged slayer of her father. Courtroom attendants were panic-stricken as the quiet of the court was suddenly broken by a gun shot. Helen, from a front row seat, had shot and fatally wounded the defendant, Jack Woris.

Brought to trial, Helen was convicted and sentenced to prison for five years. While awaiting an appeal to the supreme court she procured a job as a waitress in a Dewitt, Ark., restaurant owned by Jim Bohots. Shortly afterwards Bohots was found slain in his automobile.

Suspected of the slaying, she was severely questioned but released. Then she served two years in prison for the killing of Woris. Paroled, she came to Little Rock, worked in a restaurant, and then as a waitress at the Bohots. Confessing the murder of Bohots, she was sentenced to life in prison.

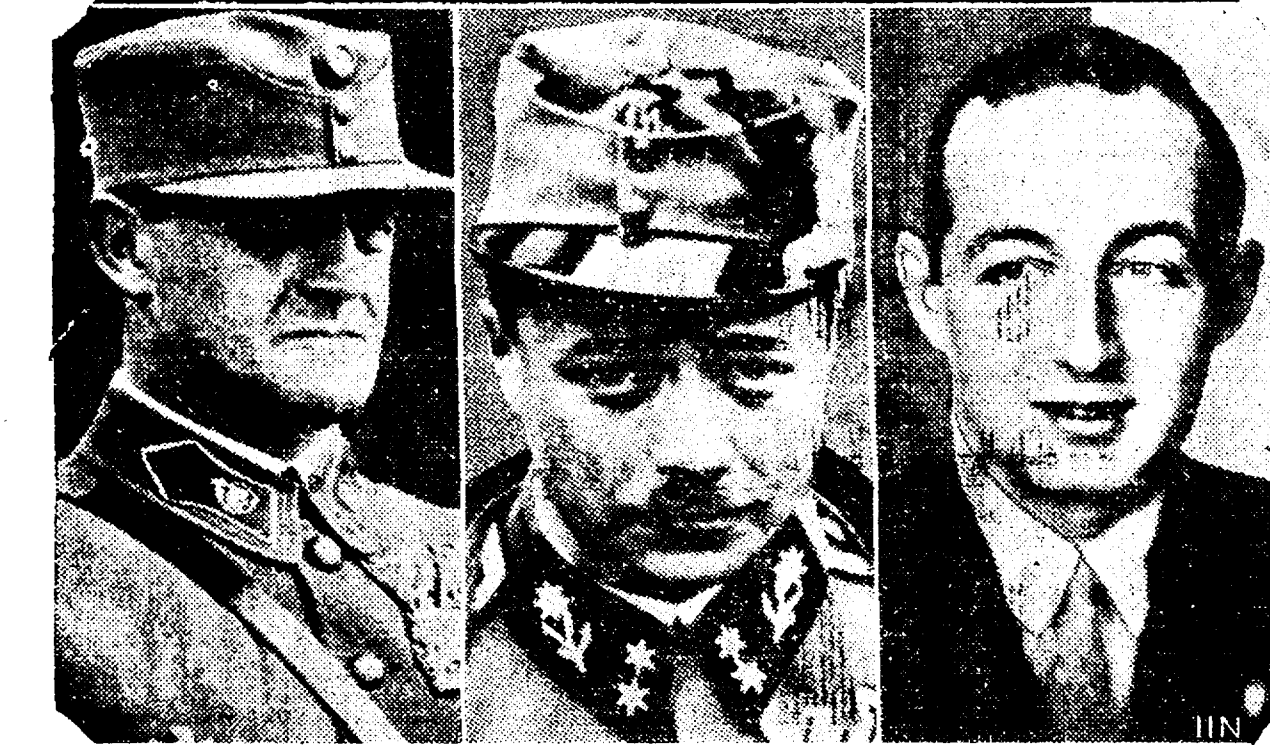

ESCAPED 3 TIMES

Three times she escaped from the prison farm, but was captured and returned. The fourth time she swore she would never be returned alive. And today her lifeless, bullet-shattered body awaited a prison burial.

JOHNSON HITS BORAH'S STAND

Names Him 'Sabotaging Gentleman,' Begins 30-Day Combination Tour.

WATERLOO, Ia., July 12.—Striking at Senator Borah, insurgent Republican critic of the National Recovery Administration, and other "sabotaging gentlemen," Recovery Administrator Hugh S. Johnson began his 30-day combination speaking tour and vacation in a speech at the coliseum here today.

"Failure to distinguish between the president's Recovery program and the NRA," was cited by Johnson as the cause for much unwarranted criticism.

"They are not the same thing at all," Johnson observed and continued:

NRA ONLY PART

"NRA is only a part of the president's broad scheme and a very small part. So when anybody tells you that NRA and the Blue Eagle have not done for the farmer all that he hoped, you can tell them to go jump in the lake. NRA had no such protean duty. It was set up to do for city workers what AAA was charged with doing for farmers."

"In the first place, in the year ended May 31, 1934, employment in this country has increased by 32 per cent. All payrolls have increased by 28 percent and payrolls in manufacture (where NRA has the most direct effect) have increased by 57 percent."

"During the same period, the cost of living increased only 11 percent."

OBERLIN

A distinguished service medal, emblematic of the highest honor, of the Oberlin college alumni association was recently given to Dr. Dan F. Bradley, Cleveland Congregationalist pastor.

FATE OF RECLUSE'S KILLER GIVEN JURY

JACKSON, July 12.—The fate of Herbert Thacker, 21-year-old negro, accused of first degree murder in the slaying of Stephen Huntley, aged recluse, today was placed in the hands of the jury after Prosecutor Fred Everett demanded the death penalty for the youth.

Thacker broke down and cried at his trial when his mother took the stand to relate that "I always tried to raise my boy right; I tried to make him like a girl, and had him help me wash dishes and clean house; I always made him go to church."

The youth, from the witness stand, admitted a part in the crime but blamed the actual killing on Ray Freeman, his companion. Freeman will be placed on trial Monday.

Streamlined Ships

BOSTON — Stream lining has come to naval architecture. Appearance of the Arctree, second of the two British tramp steamers to be built on the stream line principle, in Boston harbor, caused widespread interest along the waterfront and elicited the information from her captain, Keith Williams, that his ship burned five tons less of coal per day than other steamers of a similar class.

SANDUSKY

A serum inoculation against "June Bug" fever, which has been prevalent here since June bugs began invading this city in billions the past few weeks, was announced by Ollie Pecord, Toledo pathologist at Good Samaritan hospital here.

The serum, which is secured from the bugs after they have been subjected to drying process, have proven successful in repeated tests Pecord said. The "June Bug Fever," he said, acts very much like common hay-fever.

Popular Stanley Reed, brought from Kentucky by the Hoover Administration to be general counsel of its Farm Board at $20,000 a year, now with the RFC, is due for another promotion. This time it is to fill a Federal judgeship in Eastern Kentucky. Reed wrote the opinion on which the Administration impounded all gold in the country, an action which has been sustained by two Federal courts. Only a few insiders knew it, but Joe Kennedy's contribution to the election of Franklin D. Roosevelt was not confined to money. Kennedy played a crucial part in swinging Garner support to the wavering Roosevelt nomination at the Chicago convention. Colorado's hard-hitting Senator Costigan, afflicted as a child with St. Vitus' dances, was cured by falling out of a tree and breaking an arm. Before leaving for a month's vacation on a Montana ranch Secretary Morgenthau told Treasury newsmen he had arranged for Under-Secretary Thomas J. Coolidge to hold the regular weekly press conference. "You boys will have to break him in," said Morgenthau. "One thing is certain. He won't be any worse scared than I was when I first began meeting you." Able young Representative Paul Kvale is the only Farmer-Laborite in Minnesota being opposed by a Republican-Democratic fusion candidate. Kvale plans to put both national committees on the spot by asking whether there is so little difference between the two old line parties that they can get together in an effort to beat a liberal.

attempts to solve our international question," he said.
Dr. Dewey criticized parts of President Roosevelt's program, particularly the NRA, which he said was conflicting in itself. "Both the employer and labor are given specified rights in the NRA codes but to date, labor has been left pretty much out in the cold," he asserted.
He praised the Tennessee Valley Authority project, declaring that it would be an excellent yardstick to measure the costs of electrical energy in the future.
"One of the most important parts of the New Deal and the only part, which if worked out, will assure any security in the future," Dr. Dewey said, "is the planning division of the NRA." This, he said, has been almost totally disregarded and he criticized General Hugh Johnson for not taking a more active part in it.
MAKES YOU LOSE UNHEALTHY FAT
A young woman of Norwich, Conn., writes: "I lost 15 lbs. with my first bottle of Kruschen. Before my first diet it was hard to sleep days but now sleep I am taking Kruschen sleep plenty, eat as usual and lose fat, too. To take off fat—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts before breakfast—use one bottle that lasts 4 weeks—costs but little—get it at any drug store in America. If the first bottle fails to convince you this is the SAFE and HARMLESS way to lose fat—your money gladly returned. Don't accept anything but Kruschen if you want to reduce safely."

ROTARIANS HEAR DEWEY, ECONOMIST
attempts to solve our international question," he said.
Dr. Dewey criticized parts of President Roosevelt's program, particularly the NRA, which he said was conflicting in itself. "Both the employer and labor are given specified rights in the NRA codes but to date, labor has been left pretty much out in the cold," he asserted.
He praised the Tennessee Valley Authority project, declaring that it would be an excellent yardstick to measure the costs of electrical energy in the future.
"One of the most important parts of the New Deal and the only part, which if worked out, will assure any security in the future," Dr. Dewey said, "is the planning division of the NRA." This, he said, has been almost totally disregarded and he criticized General Hugh Johnson for not taking a more active part in it.
MAKES YOU LOSE UNHEALTHY FAT
A young woman of Norwich, Conn., writes: "I lost 15 lbs. with my first bottle of Kruschen. Before my first diet it was hard to sleep days but now sleep I am taking Kruschen sleep plenty, eat as usual and lose fat, too. To take off fat—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts before breakfast—use one bottle that lasts 4 weeks—costs but little—get it at any drug store in America. If the first bottle fails to convince you this is the SAFE and HARMLESS way to lose fat—your money gladly returned. Don't accept anything but Kruschen if you want to reduce safely."

SNYDER REUNION ATTENDED BY 120
One hundred and twenty of the children and grandchildren and other descendants of Adam and Anna Snyder, pioneer residents of Bloomsburg, Fairfield co., held their second annual reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Snyder, near Royalton, Sunday.
Of the immediate family, four sons, M. L. "Doc," William Burleigh and Minor Snyder, and two daughters, Mrs. Amelia Hines and Mrs. G. D. Griffith, are living, all of whom were present except "Doc" who resides in Iowa.
The Snyder family history, written in numerous style, by G. D. Griffith of Ashville, was read by Miss Elizabeth Reed, also of Ashville, a great granddaughter.
The officers of the organization are Lawrence Snyder, president, Mrs. Mary Kirschbaum, secretary, and Theodore Snyder, treasurer. A short business session was held at which time it was decided to hold the next reunion in July, 1935, at the same place. The present officers were retained for another year.
At the noon hour a most appetizing basket dinner was served on tables on the lawn and proved one of the enjoyable features of the meeting. Social conversation occupied the time of the adults while the younger set enjoyed croquet and other games.
